Throwback Thursday

Here is our first weekly look at item from the Knights of Columbus Multimedia Archives

Mass in front of the Knights of Columbus recreation hall, El Paso, Texas, 1916-1917.

"Sunday morning service." Scanned from a copy of a print enlargement from an unidentified source. 2018-13.

The roots of Knights' support for the military is seen in this postcard of a Sunday Mass in El Paso, Texas. The Mass took place during the Mexican Punitive Expedition, also called the Pancho Villa Expedition, which brought U.S. troops to the Mexican border to fight against the Villistas between June 1916 and February 1917.

El Paso Council 638 is credited with being the first to provide social and humanitarian services to General Pershing's 60,000 troops in El Paso. (The United Service Organization would not come into existence until 1941.) The program was initially funded with local donations and then a $1,000 grant from the Supreme Council. Later, during WWI, Knights formalized support for the troops, at home and overseas, under the banner "Everybody Welcome, Everything Free."

For more than 100 years, the Knights has supported the spiritual and physical needs of the military.

From the State Deputy

Michael A. Allen

Brothers,

April already? Wow, this fraternal year is really flying by! Hope your Council is ready - or nearly ready - for the upcoming convention. There are many things that should be done by now, but if they haven't been completed yet, please get them in. It's never too late. These may include: reports to be filed, awards entries to be submitted, Per capita to be paid, Council delegate certification in to the State Secretary, recruiting that new church member..... just to name a few.

As you already know, our annual convention is being held in Columbia this year. If you haven't already, please get your registration in now!! It's easier than ever to register-- just go to southcarolinaknights.org and fill out the online form, then mail your check to Ed Griffin. Also, make sure you get your meals (and your lady's) reserved and paid for. And don't forget the Ladies'—their luncheon includes a Birthright Baby Shower. The convention committee has been working on this convention for a long time - let's get excited!

April church drives bring May Knights! Has your Council conducted a drive yet? It's still not too late to get one scheduled and conducted. The last few months have been slower than we expected in the new member recruitment area and it's not too late to step up your efforts. If you really want it, it isn't too late to attain that Star Council award.

Since this is the Year of Building the Domestic Church - I thought it would be worthwhile to share some ways we as Knights of Columbus show that we are the head of the domestic church that makes up the Church of God.....I would love to hear your examples of how you and your Council show works of mercy

- Feed the hungry - 40 cans for lent or any food drive, work in soup kitchen
- Clothe the naked - Coats for Kids, donations to shelters
- Shelter the Homeless - help provide staffing for warm-

From the Vocations Director

James P. Weiskircher, Vocations Director

In South Carolina, we rely on religious orders to provide roughly one-third of the priests in the diocese. The process to become a religious for the priesthood will take on average 2-4 years longer than a diocesan priest. It is important to understand why priests and religious are being ordained so that we as Knights can encourage our youth to consider becoming priests.

The USCCB has just released its study of New Priests in diocesan and religious orders, The Ordained Class of 2017. This report presents findings from a national survey of men who professed perpetual vows in 2017 in a religious congregation, province, or monastery based in the United States as well as diocesan priests. Of the 590 ordinands, a total of 444 responded (343 diocesan and 101 religious) to the survey. This represents a response rate of 75 percent.

- Eight in ten responding religious institutes had no one professing perpetual vows in religious life in 2017. More than one in ten institutes had one perpetual profession and nearly in one in ten reported two or more.
- The average age of responding religious of the Profession Class of 2017 is 34. Half of the responding religious are age 31 or younger.
- Seven in 10 responding (70 percent) report their primary race or ethnicity as white, more than one in ten (10 percent) identifies as Asian, and more than one in seven (14 percent) identifies as Hispanic.
- Most responding (75 percent) were born in the United States. Of those born outside the United States, the most common country of origin is Mexico.
- On average, the respondents who were born outside the United States were 24 years old when they first came to the United States and lived here for 12 years before ordination.
- Nearly nine in ten responding religious (93percent) have been Catholic since birth. More than three-quarters (80 percent) come from families in which both parents are Catholic. Among the 7 percent of respondents who became Catholic later in life, the average age at which they converted was 21.
- Almost all responding ordinands (97 percent) have at least one sibling. About half (46 percent) have three siblings or more. On average, responding ordinands have three siblings (a median of two).
- Half of the responding religious (50 percent) attended a Catholic elementary school, which is higher than that for all Catholic adults in the United States (39 percent). These respondents are also more likely than other U.S. Catholics to

Worthy Grand Knights, Faithful Navigators and Members of the State Council:

We still have 15 Councils that have not held an Admission Degree this fraternal year. There is no reason for this except lack of recruiting and pride in wanting to build your Council and offering the greatest opportunity to your fellow Catholic men the membership in the Knights of Columbus. You still have 2 months to become active and hold an Admission Degree and become a number instead of a zero.

We have 6 Councils that have met or exceeded their goal for the year. Several others are near obtaining theirs. It is time to get out and make that final push for membership and hold a degree prior to June 30 of this year. Let's show the State Deputy that we care and can recruit new members to build the South Carolina State Council to new records in membership. The Degree awards will be given out at the New Grand Knights workshop. You need to check the report in the newsletter to make sure your council has the correct reported degrees, if they do not, then you need to contact your District Deputy and have him correct the information.

The attached reports show the status of each council for Admission Degrees and the District Formation Degrees for 2017 – 2018. These reports do not show membership intake for councils or District they only show either Admission or Formation Degrees held.

Dear Brothers

The Fraternal year is rapidly coming to a close. The State Convention provides an opportunity to recognize excellence. We are looking forward to presenting the Silver Rosary Award. As soon as you can, please forward your council's participations to us so we can arrange for engraving on the commemorative plaque. Also, you must include the official number of total members in your Council. Your Financial Secretary has the number. Send information to stclair33@bellsouth.net.

Father's Day is celebrated in June and we have a great Domestic Church program to commemorate Father's Day. What better way to lead your family in recognizing the importance of marriage than to have an Affirmation of Wedding Vows. We strongly recommend that you arrange at the end every Sunday Mass on Father's Day, a parish wide event which celebrates the Affirmation as outlined at this Link: <https://www.kofc.org/un/en/domestic-church/parish-programs/wedding-vows.html#/>

The Featured Program for May will be the "Into the Breach" booklet and seminars. More information will be posted in the State Council website in the Domestic Church section in just a few days so that you can immediately start planning your program for the Council and Parish.

need to address the invitation of personnel to the installation of your Council. Your District Deputy must be notified as much in advance of the installation date you want for your Council. Next you need to send invitations to any State Officers that you want to attend your installation. A letter and personnel invite must be made to your Council Chaplain or any clergy you wish to have there. Make sure when they arrive that you or someone from your Council stays with them and makes them feel at home. When a meal is involved be sure they are seated in a place of honor and go or are served first ahead of members of the council. If they are expected to say something at the installation be sure to notify them of the fact and the amount of time they have to speak. If they ask what you want them to speak on make a suggestion, otherwise leave this to their discretion.
