THE PRAYER OF A NATION

by Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson

IN A SPIRIT OF SOLIDARITY, LEADERS EXPRESS GRATITUDE TO GOD AND WORK TO PROTECT THE RELIGIOUS LIBERTY OF ALL

ON MAY 4, I had the honor of joining Cardinal Donald Wuerl, archbishop of Washington; Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, archbishop of Galveston- Houston and president of the U.S. bishops' conference; members of the Little Sisters of the Poor; and leaders of Orthodox, Protestant, Jewish and other faith communities at a White House Rose Garden ceremony during the National Day of Prayer.

The event, at which President Trump signed an executive order on religious liberty, began with the singing of the Lord's Prayer.

The spring observance of the National Day of Prayer was established by Congress and proclaimed by President Harry Truman in 1952. While some may dismiss the National Day of Prayer as largely symbolic, and others, like the Freedom From Religion Foundation, may ridicule it, I felt that something very important took place. Religious leaders from around the nation joined together in prayer at the White House with a deep sense of respect for each other's traditions.

Cardinal Wuerl was one of those chosen to lead the gathering in prayer. His words truly captured the atmosphere of unity when he said: "O God, who gave one origin to all peoples and willed to gather from them one family for yourself, fill our hearts, we pray, with the fire of your love and kindle in all of us a desire for the just advancement of our neighbor, that through all good things which you richly bestow upon all, each human person may be brought to perfection, every division may be removed, and equality and justice be established in human society."

Years ago, Father Patrick Peyton repeatedly reminded us that "the family that prays together, stays together." Perhaps the same might be said of nations.

Approximately six decades ago, the Knights of Columbus led the effort to add the words "under God" to the U.S. Pledge of Allegiance. The phrase is taken from Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

And it was Lincoln who first proclaimed a National Day of Prayer in 1863, stating that "it is the duty of nations as well as of men to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow ... and to recognize ... that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord."

During the ceremony this past May, the president signed an

From the State Deputy

Michael A. Allen

Brothers,

I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for your hard work and your dedication to our Order the past year. You are the reason we have been one of the most successful jurisdictions in the Order for so many years.

I also want to thank you for allowing me to lead the South Carolina Knights for a second term. I look forward to a very productive year as all 63 councils start off quickly and reach for the Star. The Star Council award is the most prestigious designation that a council can earn, and each and every council is in the running to achieve that star.

As Knights, we should be very proud of the traditions that we have established in South Carolina. We have many great achievements in Membership, Council Growth, State Charities, Star Councils and Programs. As leaders of the South Carolina State Council, we truly believe in what the Knights of Columbus stands for, dedicating ourselves to grow and strengthen our Order. Remember that we have an obligation to offer membership in the Knights of Columbus to every eligible Catholic man to enable him to become a better man, Catholic, husband, father, brother and citizen.

For us to be successful, we must support each other to be effective and recommit ourselves to be outstanding.

Our primary goals for this fraternal year are:

- Recruit 600 new members, while keeping suspensions manageable.
- “Every Council Active” in recruiting new Knights for positive growth
- Create 2 New Councils to support our parishes and priests
- Sponsor 35 Roundtables to support more Catholic communities
- Obtain at least 28 Star Councils to recognize our men for the great work they do
- Strengthen our Families and Parishes by “Building the Domestic Church”
- Live out our Catholic faith through our charitable and community service
- Celebrate and support those who serve us all – especially our clergy and religious, military and veterans, law enforcement and first responders

As always, thanks for all you do for the state, your parish and your local community. Vivat Jesus,

From the Vocations Director

James P. Weiskircher, Vocations Director

This will be an important year for vocations. Two years ago, we only had 9 seminarians in the program. Last year, the number doubled to 18. Andrew Fryml became a priest and one seminarian dropped out, so we are at 16. At Andrew Fryml’s ordination to the priesthood, the Bishop announced that 10 young men were accepted into the program to join the 16 we already had. The vocations office will not release the names until they actually show up for the seminary. It appears that the number will be 10. It is important these 10 are supported by their home parish council’s. Once the names are released I will contact each Grand Knight and ask that their council support a seminarian from their parish. We have two from our parish and have supported them since they entered the seminary.

As you are establishing your budgets for this year, please consider sponsoring a seminarian if you have not done so in the past. If you have sponsored one, please consider sponsoring a second one in the coming year. I will be able to make a recommendation so that we can make sure that one seminarian does not receive all of the support while the others go without any. If a young man is from your parish or has worked in the parish over the summer please support them. The Councils in South Carolina have been very generous in the past and I am hoping that you will continue again this year. This year, we have ten young men entering the seminary. We need to make sure that each of them is covered.

Some of our seminarians that have been in the program for more than two years, have several councils supporting them. If you had supported Andrew Fryml in the past please support a new seminarian. Please contact me for the names of seminarians that need the support. It is important that we cover all of the young men. We presently have situations where 5 councils are supporting one seminarian and only one supporting another.

Remember that all seminarians need support. If you are in the Rock Hill area, and your priests come from the Oratory, then please consider supporting a seminarian from there. If your parish is covered by an Order like the Adorno Fathers or Franciscan’s, please consider supporting a seminarian from their Order. They need our support and prayers as much as our diocesan seminarians do.

In a few weeks, our seminarians will be starting school and if they are going to a new seminary, their addresses and email addresses will be changing. The Vocations office will be able to give us the updated information next month. When I get the information, I will forward it to each council.

Brother Sir Knights,

Congratulation to the 25 Assemblies that have submitted, (and I expect will earn,) the Supreme Council Civic Award. This is up from 7 Assemblies earning the Award last year. It is a demonstration of the strong patriotic and Church related programs conducted by the Assemblies of the SC District. I also thank District Program Director SK Keith Kingren for publicizing the Award and helping to encourage Assemblies to apply.

The SC District Faithful Navigator Orientation Workshop will be held on Saturday, July 22, 2017 at the St. John Neumann School on Polo Road in Columbia. We will meet in conjunction with the SC State Council Grand Knight's Orientation Workshop. Faithful Navigators, Faithful Captains, Faithful Comptrollers, Assembly Commanders should attend. If the Faithful Navigator cannot make it, he is responsible for assuring someone from his Assembly attends.

The 75th South Carolina District Exemplification is scheduled for September 30 at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Charleston. It is time now to recruit new Fourth Degree members.

Installations of Officers are in progress. We will have completed all 30 by the end of July, with I have performed the installation for 28 of the 30 Assemblies. Kathy and I have enjoyed meeting all of you. We thank you for your hospitality. The final numbers are in from the Supreme Master concerning the Military Chaplain Campaign. In summary, $1.56 million was raised versus the original goal of $1.00 million. South Carolina proudly did its share, thanks to contributions from the State Councils and District Assemblies. South Carolina raised $27,800 versus our original goal of $20,000. Great job, South Carolina.

Let us pray for our country and Church:

Holy Family, pray for us.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the Americas and the unborn, pray for us.

St. Joseph, patron saint of the Universal Church, pray for us.

"Sir Knight" is more than a title — it's an honor!

As Knights, we need to find creative ways to continue to promote vocations to our young people. They need to see young priests in action and see vocations as a viable career option. The numbers entering the seminary are encouraging and we need to encourage more. Thank you for your past and future support.

From the State Ceremonials/ Protocol Chairman

Ronald G. Povero, PSD, FM

Worthy Grand Knights and Members of the State Council:
The good news is that 3 Councils have hit the ground running for the new fraternal year with holding an Admission Degree in the first week of the fraternal year. They have collectively brought in 11 new members.

The ceremonial awards will be given out at the new Grand Knights meeting. Will your Council be receiving one of the awards? If not do you plan to act positively and plan on receiving the Ceremonial Award next Fraternal year? Schedule your Admission Degrees now for the first half of the Fraternal year and recruit to fill the scheduled degrees.

The attached reports show the status of each council for Admission Degrees and the District Formation Degrees for 2017 – 2018. These reports do not show membership intake for councils or District they only show either Admission or Formation Degrees held.

PROTOCOL

Worthy Grand Knights and Members of the State Council:
Dress for Meetings and Degrees

The presiding officer, in keeping with the dignity of his office, should be neatly and properly dressed. He should request that his officers do likewise to set the proper dress code for the membership to follow. Proper dress for this and all degrees is coat and tie. Remember the first impression that visitors and new members (candidates) get is what they see first when coming to a function or degree. Dress for candidates should also be coat and tie for all degrees. They should be told this during the interview with the admission team or when advancing to higher degrees of the order by the sponsor, Council Grand Knight or membership chairman. If a member does not have this the Council should provide him a coat and tie for the degree.

BUILDING THE DOMESTIC CHURCH

Fellow Brothers of the Domestic Church,

On July 22nd, the State Council is conducting the GK Orientation workshop in Columbia. Sadly, I will be unable to attend. However, I will be preparing a detailed handout for every Grand Knight and Council Director for Building the Domestic Church. I will review our objectives, details on planning a successful Domestic Church Program, and a solicitation of your inputs on how I may serve you, the Councils, better. I want you to know that this is an important project and that I will go to any length to help you develop your program into a highly successful one! Communication is the key. Contact me by phone or email and share your ideas. I sincerely want to hear from you. (803)968-5884 stclair33@bellsouth.net

Please remember that as you start this fraternal year's planning, Supreme Council has stipulated that in order to win the Columbian Award, you must conduct 5 Domestic Church projects during the course of this year. Also, know that winning the Columbian Award is a pre-requisite for Star Council. Hence, the establishment of an active Domestic Church program is essential to winning Star Council. Charge forward!

If you had a Father's Day Affirmation of Wedding Vows activity in June, please share your photos. Send them in to me so I can share your project's success with the other Councils on the State Website. (stclair33@bellsouth.net) Next month the theme is Hope. Plug into the state website and review the projects we have recommended for this optimistic theme. With all the negativity advertised in the media about our country, we need to find hope in our faith as Catholic leaders in our family and community. Our job is to portray hope to all those around us...spouse, children, neighbors and parishioners.

Finally, if any of you Brothers who are in a situation where your marriage has resulted in or is in danger of divorce, the Diocese of Charleston and our State Council is sponsoring a Journey of Hope Conference on August 4-6, 2017. The event will be held at the Charleston Marriott and they have an all-star cast of speakers and experts to help you reorganize your life with the intent to help you recover from marital conflict. See the detailed announcement in the state website and here in the state newsletter (page 8). Don't miss this opportunity. I will have a booth....look for it!

Keep chargin'!!

Fraternally,

Jim St. Clair,

Director, Building the Domestic Church

executive order on religious liberty. Some have criticized the order for not going far enough to establish new, broad protections.

But Cardinal DiNardo's response seems most appropriate. Noting that he had met with the president to discuss these issues shortly before the ceremony, the cardinal stated, "Today's executive order begins the process of alleviating the serious burden of the HHS mandate. We will engage with the administration to ensure that adequate relief is provided to those with deeply held religious beliefs."

Seeing the president greet the Little Sisters of the Poor and invite them to the podium to stand with him, those in attendance were assured that the "process of alleviating the serious burden of the HHS mandate" had indeed begun.

Just days after the president's signing of the executive order, I had the privilege of a one-on-one meeting with Vice President Pence to discuss these issues in more detail.

It is said that a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step. Recently, the president took two such steps.

The first was setting a legal foundation by executive order to protect our free exercise of religion from overreach by federal agencies.

The second came in answer to a question from EWTN, whose News Nightly reporters had recently visited Iraq with Knights of Columbus sponsorship. The president stated that he was going to help the Christians of the Middle East.

The Knights of Columbus has always been steadfast in our defense of religion freedom at home and abroad. Seeing a new concern for this issue at the highest levels of our country is welcome.

Welcome, too, is the fact that Pope Francis and the president agreed to do more to protect religious freedom and religious minorities when they met May 24 in the Vatican.

Now is the time for all of us to commit to do more.

God is Love

By Deacon Bob Cox

God has given mankind two very important forms of love, family and marital. The domestic church, which is composed of the Christian family, has been given the responsibility of being the learning place of divine love and human love.

This Christian domestic church is the tool that is used to educate the entire person concerning spiritual, moral, and intellectual growth and progress. Fathers and mothers have the responsibility of being the first teachers of their offspring. One of the many topics that they must teach their children is self-giving love. Self-giving love means to sacrifice something that means a lot to us and to put another person's interest and/or well-being ahead of our own. As Knights, we need look no further than the sacrifices made to help those with mental and physical handicaps. Just as Jesus gave himself on the cross for us, His self-giving love sacrificed it all for the good of mankind. By letting His Son sacrifice Himself for us, God's self-giving love gave us our salvation.

Because a wife and husband accept the vocation of marriage, they need to be able to accept the fact that they are the first educators of their children and teach them the meaning of self-giving love. Parents can do this by their actions and by displaying their commitment to one another in a loving, caring manner. By putting God first, parents are showing a love to their children that is found in wholesome, religious, family life. By having their father as a Knight of Columbus, children will learn what it means to love, what self-giving love means, as they witness how their fathers and other Knights sacrifice their time and talents to support charity programs, support seminarians, or make contributions to the Felician Sisters in Kingstree, learning first-hand what love is all about. Learning about self-giving love.

Always remember, that self-giving love helps us to unite with the source of life and love itself, Jesus Christ!

Council 10819 Charity Event

Submitted by Jim Bentz, Council 10819

Per the flyer on page 7, the 2017 Poker Run is on August 26. Again all the proceeds are donated to local charities that provide services encompassed in The Columbus HOPE Foundation program.

The event is open to all motor vehicles - cars, trucks, vans, motorcycles. As described in the flyer, one can register on-line or at the event. This is not a gambling based event. Participants receive one playing card at registration and then take scenic drives (thru routes prescribed by the Knights) to five business locations in the local Upstate area. At each location another card is selected. At the Toyota of Greenville location, free hamburgers and hot dogs will be available. The participant with the best poker hand wins the best hands awards. Other nice door prizes are given out at the awards party to participants at the famous Beacon Drive-In near Spartanburg.

We would really like to encourage more Diocese of Charleston parishioners to participate and support this worthy event. The Knights volunteer over 250 man hours to make this event happen. It is a fun family event and the proceeds go to needy charities in the Upstate.
