Volume 29 Issue 11 Ninety-seventh Annual State Convention Held in Columbia

The South Carolina State Council celebrated its 97th anniversary at the State Convention held in Columbia, SC on April 27-29, 2018. At the Awards Program held on Sunday morning, the State Council presented the personal recognition awards to the individuals who best exemplify the basic principles of the Knights of Columbus in the areas described below. Congratulations to all the winners.

The Golden Knight of the Year, James Zaloudek, Council

10066. Br. Jim is the oldest active Knight in the Council. He is 85 years old and has been married for 59 years to his wife Louise. Jim is a veteran of the United States Army where he served in Seoul, Korea and the DMZ from 1952-1954. Jim is an Honorary Life member of the Knights of Columbus. He has held the office of Grand Knight on two separate occasions. Despite his age and illnesses such as bouts with cancer and others, he has remained one of the most active brothers within the Council. Jim is a Knight traditionalist. He reminds us not to forget our history, customs, and traditions. He is adept at encouraging the utmost pomp and circumstance when it comes to our Knights' activities and functions.

The Family of the Year, Sean and Bridget Mulcahy, Council 10066. Brother Sean Mulcahy has held numerous offices in our Council. He has served as: Recorder, Deputy Grand Knight, Grand Knight, and Financial Secretary. He is a member of the membership committee. Together, he and his wife have organized and worked at numerous social and fundraising events for our council. These include: the annual St. Patrick's Day Party, a wine and beer tasting party, the parish picnic, and the

He participated in the flag folding ceremony for Veteran's Day. Together, the Mulcahys host part of our progressive dinner every year at Christmas. Bridget Mulcahy is the president of St. Catherine's Ladies Guild. She has held this office for the past two years. During this time, she has organized and led many events to help deepen the spiritual lives of its members and the parish community. These include: 2 four-part retreats facilitated by the Sisters of the Humility of Mary, Lenten Soup Suppers, and a Pilgrimage to the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

The Knight of the Year is Gary Varnadore, Council 10066. Br. Gary is one of the most dominant individuals in our parish. He is present at nearly every function whether he is leading them or simply supporting them. He can be counted on to assist with any project, ministry, or activity. As my Chancellor, Lecturer, Director of Church Activities, and Director of Membership committee he has done a superb job in the execution of his Council duties. He more than anyone has increased our recruitment of new members. Br. Gary is an active force within our Council and Parish. Regardless if it is supporting our Knight's Monthly Pancake Breakfast or leading of the praying of the rosary, or teaching multiple faith formation classes to the youth of our parish, Gary is always ready and willing to step in and assist. Gary is always one of the first to volunteer and to show up to work and support our council activities and events.

The Youth of the Year award goes to Perry O'Brien,

Brothers,

Thanks to all who made our convention in Columbia so successful. For those of you who missed it, please plan to be with us in the Upstate in 2019. Delegates from councils across South Carolina were privileged to attend Mass with Fr. Jeffrey Kirby, our Convention Honoree. Fr. Kirby's powerful homily charged Catholic men with the directive to be the Priest, Profit and King of their Domestic Church.

Each year we elect our leaders for the future and set our focus by adoption of resolutions on a variety of matters. We also elect seven delegates to attend the Supreme Convention as representatives of South Carolina. With this important work going on, we still get a chance to socialize with Brother Knights and their families from every part of the State. Please make plans to attend next year, I promise you won't regret it. The key need for our future is to get South Carolina back to the Circle of Honor where we belong. This is a critical step in Building the Domestic Church - the Order's commitment to renew our parishes by reconnecting our basic programs to meet the Pastor's goals. It is critical that we stress to current and prospective members that our "Faith in Action" is a response recognizing that all gifts come from our heavenly Father. So instead of recruiting in our typical fashion, let's see if we can achieve new levels of results by returning to the basics - expressed as the "ABC" s.

- A = Adoration. We give thanks to the God who is the source of all gifts, the God who tells us not to fear and to call Him our Father. We adore him for the love and care He showers over us. We are men of prayer and men of action. How can we not succeed if this is our starting point?
- B = Brotherhood. Because we recognize God as the Father of us all, and receiver of His many gifts, we are a great family of grateful humans. Even more so, as Knights we claim a Catholic brotherhood that binds us together in a deeper bond. As family and as brothers, we commit to love and care for each other and reach out in love to those around us to meet true needs.
- C = Charity. Our outreach to each other and those around us is the charity that evangelizes, that expands the family by demonstrating the kinship of human-

James P. Weiskircher, Vocations Director

This year, we are very fortunate to have three young men being ordained in the Diocese of Charleston. Deacon Rhett Williams will be ordained as a priest for the Diocese of Charleston on June 8th at six o'clock in the evening at his home parish of the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist in Charleston. Deacons Kevin Daborbor CRM (Adorno Fathers), (who has been doing his pastoral year at Jesus Our Risen Savior in Spartanburg and Immaculate Conception in Goose Creek) and Deacon Rufino Madridejos, Jr. CRM (who has been doing his pastoral year at St. Jude and St. Anne's in Sumter) will be ordained by Bishop Guglielmone will be ordained as priests on June 22nd at 6:00 p.m. at Immaculate Conception in Goose Creek. We are very fortunate because it has been a number of years since 3 young men have been ordained in the Diocese.

Seminarians Francisco Ornate-Vargas and Jimmy Touzeau will be ordained to the transitional diaconate on May 18th at 6 p.m. at St. Mary's in Greenville. Francisco will be in his final year at St. Vincent de Paul Seminary in Boynton Beach, FL. His home parish is Our Lady of the Hills in Columbia. Jimmy is a long-time parishioner of Holy Cross in Pickens and is attending St. Mary's seminary in Houston. If you have never attended an ordination before please consider showing your support for these young men by attending.

In the diocese, we are fortunate to have a large crop of new seminarians this year. Even more exciting is that fact that many are young and will have a long life as a priest serving the needs of the people of the Charleston Diocese. I believe that young people in the diocese are now starting to see more young men entering the priesthood and see it as a vocation that is open to them. It will be a number of years (6-9) before we will start to see the number of ordinations grow in the diocese but the future is bright. It takes an active parish to provide the environment to help form the next generation of priests to serve the diocese.

If you have not sent in your RSVP forms to Supreme, you just have until June 30th to submit them. Thank you for your continued support of seminarians.

Ronald G. Povero, PSD, FM

With the State Convention over and awards given out and new members elected to lead the State Council it is time each Council takes a look at their admission Degree work and what they have or have not done this year. If you have not held a degree, what are you waiting on, someone else to take over in the new year and do your recruitment for you and get the credit you should have gotten?

We still have 15 Councils that have not held an Admission Degree this fraternal year. There is no reason for this except lack of recruiting. You still have 2 months to become active and hold an Admission Degree and become a number instead of a zero.

The Degree awards will be given out at the New Grand Knights workshop. You need to check the report in the newsletter to make sure your council has the correct reported degrees, if they do not, then you need to contact your District Deputy and have him correct the information.

The attached reports show the status of each council for Admission Degrees and the District Formation Degrees for 2017

- 2018. These reports do not show membership intake for councils or District they only show either Admission or Formation Degrees held.

Dear Brothers

This year's State Convention provided an opportunity to recognize excellence. And excel you did! Very importantly, we want to pass on to all of the Councils a comment made by the State Deputy, "Supreme Council has said that South Carolina is light years ahead of the other States with their Domestic Church initiative." Gentlemen, we have that to be proud of, but we also have much more work to build the program in every local Council even stronger. Thank you, everyone, and let's continue to excel. We presented the Silver Rosary Award to Fr. John B. Adair Council 7129 of Greenwood. They accumulated 1235 family rosary participations in just a 60 day span. Surely, the Blessed Mother is very pleased with such a great effort. Congratulations to Chaircouple David and Linda Putman, Grand Knight Lee Van Voris, and all faithful Brothers in Council 7129. Right there with similar enthusiasm were Councils 13713 and 11471. If every Council were to match these distinctive Councils next year, we could have over 50,000 participations in the family rosary. Can you imagine the power and glory that would be presented to The Father in petition for our Country's needs?!! Let's see if we can't do it!

The Family Service Program Award was presented to Council 11910 with Grand Knight Tom De Mars accepting. Seldom have we witnessed such a monumental effort to establish a new program in the Council and Parish. Council 11910 earned this award through their efforts in the Domestic Church Working Group, whereby comprehensive planning and execution of all facets of establishing the various tenants of a successful program were organized. They will surely prove to be effective in leading the State with their Domestic Church programs. Father's Day is celebrated in June and we have a great Domestic Church program to commemorate Father's Day. What better way to lead your family in recognizing the importance of marriage than to have an Affirmation of Wedding Vows. We strongly recommend that you arrange at the end every Sunday Mass on Father's Day, a parish wide event which celebrates the Affirmation as outlined at this Link: https://www.kofc.org/un/en/domestic-church/parish-programs/wedding-vows.html#/

May's Featured Program is the "Into the Breach" booklet and seminars. Significant information is currently posted in the State Council website in the Domestic Church section. It is not too late to plan your program for Council and Parish participation. As posted last month in the website, many resources are cited. with the respect due to the important position the District Deputy holds. District Deputies should be neatly and properly dressed when attending meetings or functions. When a District Deputy visits a Council or attends a function in his district, he should always be seated in front, near the Grand Knight.

The District Deputy should notify the Grand Knight of his councils in writing or by phone and in advance (one week to ten days) when making an official visit so that all officers will be present with their books and records.

District Deputies should instruct the Grand Knight and Warden, if necessary, on proper chamber setup for council meetings. The District Deputy may also need to advise officers on the proper protocol for members during meetings.

The District Deputy should always be called upon to speak and all members should rise when he is introduced.

Talking to God

By Deacon Bob Cox

Wow, what a great State Convention last weekend! It was totally full of conviction and a very strong message was given to us by the Convention Honoree, Fr. Jeff Kirby, concerning the Domestic Church! It was just an awesome Mass and homily on Saturday night! Thank you, Father Kirby, for your inspiring words to our Brother Knights and their wives. Men, we need to live up to his expectation of our duties as Leaders, priests, of our own Domestic Church. His expectations mirrors those of our State Deputy Mike Allen and Supreme. We have to reach out and put things in order toward God, family, and our communities.

My Brothers, in order to carry out our responsibilities as priests of your own Domestic Church, you need to talk to God. The most direct way to communicate with God is through prayer. This can be done in several ways. Prayer can be vocal, silent, contemplative, or meditative. Your choice.

I like to suggest to the adults who are in the process of becoming Catholic to find your comfort zone and listen. Get in that easy chair, on the couch or on the front porch swing and just close your mind to the sounds around you and concentrate on the silence. You will hear God talking to you.

Talk to God from your heart, and he will know your sincerity. When you talk to God as a friend, you can pause and leave time for him to answer.

Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance in your quest to talk to God. He truly listens. He will answer your prayers, your prayer request. He might answer right away, next week, next month or whenever he decides it's best.

You may or may not like his answer, but he always hears and will answer. You have to listen to God in order to hear his answer.

The source of prayer according to Scripture is the soul or the spirit, but most often it is from the heart (revealed more than a thousand times in Scripture) of the person who is talking to God.

As the priest or leader of your Domestic Church, Brothers, you must exhibit a good example of communicating to God, to your family. I suggest that you teach your young children and/ or grandchildren how to pray the Rosary, as a starting point. This is the greatest prayer, in my opinion. It will teach them a total of six prayers that are contained in the praying of the Rosary. This will bring you, your wife, and all your family members closer together as a Domestic Church, as a Family. This is the necessary starting point for you, my Brothers, to be the leader of your Domestic Church.

When our grandchildren have been with us and I say my nightly Rosary, they lay with me and listen to the prayers. My Brothers, you too can lead your family in prayer this way. May you listen to and for God, may He inspire you and guide you on your journey through this continued adventure of ity under a common Father. Based on faith, we see beyond all boundaries to provide care to others, serving our parishes and our communities. As a grateful receiver of gifts, we share them willingly with others.

Thus, we go full circle and experience the gifts that gladden the heart of the giver.

If we express these simple principles in word and deed, we can and will attract other good men to the Order; men who will build up the Domestic Church and continue the vison of Father McGivney in South Carolina. This goal is within our grasp and we cannot give up.
