GOD'S SERVANT FIRST

9/15/2016

A unique exhibit, "God's Servant First: The Life and Legacy of Thomas More," opened Friday, Sept. 16, at the Saint John Paul II National Shrine in Washington, D.C. It is the only location where the exhibit will appear in the United States.

The exhibit includes artifacts never before displayed in the United States as well as relics of St. Thomas More. More was lord high chancellor of England under King Henry VIII from 1529 to 1532. He sacrificed prestige, influence, and ultimately his life because he refused to betray his religious convictions.

Declaring Thomas More the patron saint of statesmen and politicians in 2000, St. John Paul II said More's life and martyrdom offer a testimony that "spans the centuries" and "speaks to people everywhere of the inalienable dignity of the human conscience." The title of the Washington exhibit is inspired by the words believed to be More's last: "I die the King's good servant, and God's first."

Organized and sponsored by the Knights of Columbus and the Christian Heritage Centre at Stonyhurst, England, the exhibit features over 60 artifacts, most of which are from the Stonyhurst College Collections.

Right Honorable Lord Alton of Liverpool, chairman of the Christian Heritage Centre at Stonyhurst, said, "The exhibition highlights the contemporary relevance of St. Thomas More, particularly in relation to the widespread religious persecution that continues daily in the Middle East, Pakistan, North Korea and many other places across the globe."

Patrick Kelly, executive director of the shrine, said, "Even 500 years after his death, Thomas More's example remains thoroughly modern. He is an eloquent example of courageous Christian discipleship, and it is our hope that this exhibit will inspire others to imitate his virtues and his extraordinary fidelity to God and to a well-formed conscience."

The objects on display include a first folio by William Shakespeare; a hat owned by More; a religious garment embroidered by Katherine of Aragon, the first wife of King Henry VIII; and relics of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher.

The exhibit also includes the pectoral cross and saddle chalice of John Carroll, the first Catholic bishop in the United States,

From the State Deputy

Michael A. Allen

Brother Knights,

Meister Eckhart was one of the greatest Dominican Preachers, Theologians, and Philosophers of the 14th century. During one of his sermons he said, "If the only prayer you ever say in your entire life is Thank You, it will be enough."

This weekend we had much to be grateful for in South Carolina. As bad as hurricane Matthew was, it could have been much worse. We are looking for any brothers who need assistance due to the storm. If you have needs, or know of anyone who does please let your District Deputy know, or contact your Grand Knight so he can get in touch with the District Deputy and we can get some relief to the areas that need it the most. These are the times when this organization excels, when we are living our principles of Charity, Unity Fraternity and Patriotism.

As we move to the last quarter of 2016 and into Holiday season, I ask that you keep a few things in mind. First, grow the Order, this not only means to find new men to share our experiences with, but also to try to do more Charity this year than we did last year. It means to be more social with other Catholics in your parish regardless of their relationship with the Knights. It means to share your faith with more people in the marketplace outside of the Church setting. In short it means to live out the greatest Commandment to "love God with our whole heart and mind and to love our neighbor as ourselves". But most importantly remember the real reason for the season, and never take your focus off of the birth of our Lord, and never to forget to say Thank You in your prayers.

From the Vocations Director

James P. Weiskircher, Vocations Director

With the critical shortage of priests in the diocese, we need deacons to help fill the void. Across the state for the next two months there will be informational classes held in several parishes around the state to answer any questions that you might have. We presently have several Knights across the state that are in the formation process of becoming a deacon. Please take the time to seek out a deacon or attend one of the classes to see if it might be what God is calling you to do. The entire process takes five full years. If you have ever thought or prayed about becoming a deacon, please look at the following steps as to how one becomes a deacon in the Diocese of Charleston?

1. Pray and be open to the Holy Spirit
2. Must be a practicing Catholic and actively involved in a parish ministry for a minimum of 3 years
3. Have a dialog with your pastor
4. Applicants must possess a high school diploma or GED
5. Complete the application and assemble all required documentation
6. Mail the application and supporting documentation to: Office of the Diaconate, 1662 Ingram Rd., Charleston, SC 29407
7. Applications are reviewed by a committee
8. Initial interviews conducted by a committee; enquirers selected continue to the next step
9. Background screening, psychological testing, and VIRTUS training
10. Family visits and final interviews of enquirers and wives; those selected will enter the discernment phase
11. Formation classes meet for four years and may be awarded an Associate Degree or work towards a Bachelor of Arts in Religion
12. Applicants who have already earned a Bachelor Degree may work toward a Master Degree in Theology by maintaining a 3.0 GPA
13. The cost varies each year and differs accordingly to the degree sought; currently 1/3 of the tuition is paid by the aspirant, 1/3 by the aspirant's parish, and 1/3 by the diocese
14. Wives are welcome and invited to attend all sessions to either audit the classes at no cost or earn their degree at their own expense.

It is time to vote - Catholic.

At the past Supreme Convention, Supreme Knight Carl Anderson stated, that as a matter of conscience, he felt compelled to repeat his message he delivered eight years earlier

“Once again we meet during [an election year] and once again the question confronts us: How should Catholics exercise their responsibilities as citizens? ... Can we support a candidate who may be attractive for many reasons but who supports abortions? Some partisan advocates have sought to excuse support for pro-abortions candidates through a complex balancing act.

They claim other issues are important enough to offset a candidate’s support for abortion. But the “right” to abortion .... Is not just another political issue; it is in reality a legal regime that has resulted in more than 40 million deaths.

Imagine the largest 25 cities in the United States and Canada (i.e. New York, Los Angeles, Toronto, Chicago, Philadelphia, etc.) suddenly empty ... This is what the loss of 40 million human beings would look like.

What political issue could possibly outweigh this human devastation? The answer, of course, is that there is none. Abortion is different. Abortion is killing of the innocent on a massive scale.

We need to end the political manipulation of Catholic voters by abortion advocates. It is time to end the entanglement of Catholic people with abortion killing. It is time to stop creating excuses for voting for pro-abortion politicians.

Catholic Voters have the power to transform our politics. Faithful Catholics can build a new politics – politics that is not satisfied with the status quo, but dedicated to building up a new culture of life.”

- Supreme Knight Carl Anderson

As you read this, we will be less than three weeks away from Election Day. I urge you to vote – Catholic. . For it does not matter what we claim to be, it matters what we are and what we do. Vote your Catholic Faith.

Let us pray for our country:

Holy Family, pray for us.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the Americas and the unborn, pray for us.

St. Joseph, patron saint of the Universal Church, pray for us.

From the State Ceremonials/ Protocol Chairman

Ronald G. Povero, PSD, FM

Worthy Grand Knights and Members of the State Council: Councils are stepping forward and recruiting new members and holding degrees to bring them in a timely manner. I ask all Councils to step up their efforts in memorization of the Admission Degree. I would like by the end of this year to have all Councils certified in the Admission Degree that means all positions in the degree are completed from memory. South Carolina has been known for this over the many years it has been in existence.

For a Council or District to receive credit for a degree held the District Deputy must submit a Form 450 to Supreme, State Deputy and the Ceremonial Chairman. Until this form is received by the Ceremonial Chairman, the status record will not change in the report. Any Form 450's received after the 9th of each month will not be recorded until the next month's newsletter.

The attached reports show the status of each council for Admission Degrees and the District Formation Degrees for 2016 - 2017.

PROTOCOL

Dress for Meetings and Degrees

The presiding officer, in keeping with the dignity of his office, should be neatly and properly dressed. He should request that his officers do likewise to set the proper dress code for the membership to follow. Proper dress for this and all degrees is coat and tie. Remember the first impression that visitors and new members (candidates) get is what they see first when coming to a function or degree. Dress for candidates should also be coat and tie for all degrees. They should be told this

Jubilee Year of Mercy

Submitted by the Rev. Mr. Robert Cox, Spiritual Director

Greetings my brother Knights. This month we will study the Spiritual Works of Mercy. The Spiritual Works of Mercy are acts of compassion that serve people's emotional and spiritual needs. They include: instruct; counsel; forgive; pray for others; admonish; comfort; and bear wrongs patiently.

The first three often involve a deeper understanding and concentration. The other four can be done by everyone more routinely. This month we will focus on the first three Spiritual Works of Mercy.

Admonish Sinners: Sometimes it is necessary to warn others about the harm their actions do to themselves and others. To do this effectively, you need to be tactful, knowledgeable, and to have the proper relationship with the person. As a Knight of Columbus, you, as a brother and friend, can have a deep discussion with another Knight or family member about certain actions that they are doing that do not reflect favorably on them, their family, and the KofC. Be polite and tactful. Be there for family and friends. Show Mercy.

Instruct the Ignorant: Look for opportunities to share what you know with others. You can help family or even friends with their daily homework or college papers or listen to their presentations that they may have to give in a college or work setting. You will be able to share your knowledge with these folks. That is what being a father and Knight is all about. Be there for family and friends. Show Mercy.

Counsel the Doubtful: The world is full of cynicism and negativity. Rather than add to it, adopt a positive outlook. It is a work of mercy to share your hope with people who are guarded and depressed. Once again, as a Knight, be there for family and friends that are having a hard time, whether it is emotionally, materially, or spiritually. Listen to them! Hear them out! Sometimes they need someone who will just listen, not be judgmental, and be understanding. Offer suggestions but do not dictate what they should do. Perhaps, you can refer them to a priest or a professional counselor for guidance. Be there for family and friends. Show Mercy.

Next month, the final four Spiritual Works of Mercy. Until then, have a blessed month and pray the rosary as often as possible this month for our Mother, Mary.

As a Knight of Columbus, you already possess the desire to help the Church grow in your parish. Please consider this important service to the Church. If you would like more information on the Diaconate Program, please go to the Diocese's web site at <http://sccatholic.org/diaconate> who was deeply influenced by More's example in his own work to protect the rights of American Catholics in an era of hostility.

More was executed in 1535 for refusing to recognize Henry VIII as the head of the Church in England. More and Henry had been friends and even worked together on a treatise in defense of the Catholic faith. As a popular and respected statesman, More's refusal was perceived as an implicit challenge to the legitimacy of the monarch's claims. Bishop John Fisher was executed within a month of More, on the same charge of treason.

The 20th-century English writer G. K. Chesterton said More "may come to be counted the greatest Englishman, or at least the greatest historical character in English history. For he was above all things historic. ... If there had not happened to be that particular man at that particular moment, the whole of history would have been different."

The exhibit will be open daily from Sept. 16, 2016 until March 31, 2017. Additional information is available at: www.jp2shrine.org/jp/en/news/thomas-more-exhibit.html

K of C Council 10819 4th Annual Columbus HOPE Foundation Charity Poker Run

HOPE = Helping Other People Every Day

The Knights of Columbus Council 10819 at Saint Mary Magdalene Catholic Church in Simpsonville, SC conducted this charity fund raising event on August 27, 2016. All proceeds (many thousand dollars) are donated to non-profit organizations that benefit intellectually and physically challenged people in the Greenville SC area.

The Knights spent over nine months planning and organizing this event. Sir Knight Bob DeCapite is the Event Chairman and the driving force behind this effort. His Planning/Organizing Committee of Knights include the following in the below picture. They met monthly, and as needed, to solicit and secure sponsors, create/organize the Poker Run route descriptions, event check points Knight volunteers needs and duties, create event flyer, organize advertising and television publicity needs, event registration, final scoring party Knight volunteer needs and duties and obtaining sponsor door prizes.

Power Sports of Greenville was the Premier Sponsor for this year's event. Jayson Davis, Power Sports owner and
